Shute, Samuel, 1662-1742; governor of Massachusetts.

To the Reverend Mr. Colman, Boston.

[London, Eng.] Arrived after thirty days, in Cork; and after a few days stay there proceeded to Bristol. Appreciates his expressions of kind regard toward him expressed in his two letters. Feels kindly towards the people of New England in spite of their ungrateful ways. Was graciously received by the King and ministers of state. Is surprised that he did not understand why he left, after the people took up arms against him. Will endeavor to return and to make them a happy people. Is glad the affair of the College is put off; should it appear serious again, will do what he can to avert disaster. He and Lord Barrington are to dine with Mr. Hollis. Will report any news of interest. Asks that his letter be shown to the President. Encloses to him a copy of Lord Barrington's letter relating his misfortune in the House of Commons in the matter of Harburgh. A.L.S. 2p. 12 x 7 1/2 in.

[Urles Farm in Corscombe, Dorsetshire, England.] Mr. Hollis will not be in London all summer. Informs him that the plate of Locke and the copy of the last edition on Government are locked in his cabinet and cannot be procured. The errata are very important as one of them conveys a different idea from that of John Locke's. Regrets that he cannot better serve his friend. A.L. 1p. 9 x 7 1/2 in.

Laments the philosophy of America and comments on the influence of Hume. Refers to the Boston Bill and the Quebec Bill as unjust and detestable. Believes Parliament has no claims on Ireland. [London, Eng.] Since first writing to him on the subject of Mr. Hollis' intended benefaction to the college, has not heard from him, and fears that he is ill and will not recover. Apprehensive for his plan of obtaining the benefaction on that account. Believes that a wholly Republican legislature would effect a radical change in the system of education. Refers to Princeton as a "pernicious seminary" of federalism. Believes that philosophical principles will soon undermine the priestcraft of the eastern states. A.L.S. 3p. 10 x 8 in.

To Mary Gray Chapman

4 Pemberton Square, Boston. The writer informs the addressee that the New England Freedman's Aid Society has had so much money from Boston people during the past ten years that "it no longer thinks it fair to urge its friends to continue their gifts." Tells of the reduction of the Society's work, and names the schools for which it is still responsible. They have money enough to carry them through the season, and hope before the summer to have sufficient money or promises to enable them to lay out next year's work.
